DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On November 26, 2014, Mary Daniels filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² [the "Vaccine Act" or "Program"]. Petitioner alleges that she a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (SIRVA) which was caused by the flu vaccine she received on December 3, 2012. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On February 19, 2015, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding that petitioner was entitled to compensation. On March 15, 2016, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation ["Proffer"] stating that petitioner should be awarded $108,003.08. Proffer at 1. According to respondent's Proffer, petitioner agrees to the proposed award of compensation. Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2006).

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner a lump sum payment of $108,003.08 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Mary Daniels. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.

RESPONDENT'S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

On February 18, 2015, respondent filed a Rule 4(c) Report in which she conceded entitlement. On February 19, 2015, the Court issued a Ruling on Entitlement, finding that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

Respondent now proffers that petitioner receive an award of a lump sum of $108,003.08, in the form of a check payable to petitioner. This amount represents compensation for all elements of compensation under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a) to which petitioner is entitled.¹ This proffer does not address final attorneys' fees and litigation costs. Petitioner is additionally entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and litigation costs, to be determined at a later date upon petitioner submitting substantiating documentation.

Petitioner agrees with the proffered award of $108,003.08, as representing all elements of compensation under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a) to which petitioner is entitled.
